THROWN OVER CLIFF

Victim of Negro Highwayman Saved by Skirt Catching on Crag and Rescued by Police.

Pitsburgh, March 17.—Thrown over a cliff by a negro who attacked her, Miss Margaret Coll, 23 years old, was found hanging with her clothing caught on a crag, 200 feet above the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks, at Twenty-sixth street, at midnight today. In effecting the rescue of the imperiled woman, Policemen Shearingen and Brunner risked their lives, as a slip would have sent them to death.

The woman is in a serious condition as a result of her experience. Miss Coll was on her way home when attacked by the negro. To stifle her outcries, the negro forced his cap into the woman's mouth. She continued her struggles, and the negro, becoming frightened, threw her over the hillside.

WILL DECIDE THE FATE OF BEER

Baltimore, March 17.—The real test of the constitutionality of the law prohibiting the manufacture of beer after July 1, is to be principally through Baltimore lawyers.

William L. Marbury and William L. Rawls, of this city, are associated with former United States Senator Elihu Root and William H. Guthrie, of New York, in the case filed Saturday in the United States district court of southern New York which, with "wets" and "drys" are agreed to decide whether beer, containing only 2 3-4 per cent alcohol, is an "intoxicating drink" within the provisions of the war-time prohibition law.

SAYS HE PLOTTED ARCHDUKE'S DEATH

Camp Sherman, Ohio, March 17.—Intelligence officers yesterday investigated a story told by Private Frank Hobel, twenty-seven, a patient in the base hospital, that he was one of the four men who plotted the assassination of the Austrian archduke, Franz Ferdinand, which plunged the world into war.

Hobel says after the assassination his father gave him $300 and advised him to leave the country.

According to Hobel's story, he traveled at night overland until he reached Constantipole. He took passage for America and landed in New York six weeks after Austria had declared war on Serbia.

He went to Lorain, Ohio, where he secured employment in a steel mill. When the United States came into the war he was drafted and went to Camp Sherman. He has been here since, most of the time being spent in the hospital for treatment of tuberculosis. Intelligence officers said today that their investigation so far indicates Hobel is telling the truth.

Hobel was born in Boston.

SHERIFF KILLED AS HE SEARCHES AUTO

Atlanta, Ga., March 17.—Deputy Sheriff D. W. Webb, of Decatur, was instantly killed and Deputy R. T. House was wounded early today by an unknown white man while they were searching his automobile on the Druid Hills road near Decatur.

House stated that he and Webb discovered the automobile in the woods not far from the roadside and in it was a man asleep. When they awakened him, the man stated that the car had broke down, and that while he had been engaged in making repairs he had fallen asleep. Becoming suspicious, House said the deputies started to search the car. The man warned them to stop, and when the officers continued the search, the man produced a revolver and started shooting, escaping into the woods after Webb was killed.

House stated he left the scene to notify the police, and when he returned the car had disappeared.

TO REJECT TERMS

Bernstorff Declares Signing of Food Terms Does Not Indicate Germans Will Accept Harsh Terms in Ending War.

Berlin, March 17.—"Signing by us of the food terms at Brussels does not necessarily mean that the peace terms will be signed, Count Johann Heinrich von Bernstorff, former German Ambassador to the United States said in an interview yesterday.

"It is too early," he continued, "to know whether the signing of the food terms will have any influence on the desire in high quarters to refuse to sign the peace terms and adopt a passive attitude of resistance to the allies."

Judging from obviously inspired articles in this morning's newspapers, the German delegates are not likely to sign. It is said on good authority that the delegates will have powers to refuse to sign the peace treaty and will not have to refer to the government, but possibly they will have to consult with the cabinet, which, in turn, will consult with the party leaders in the national assembly.

President Ebert has said that he foresees a possibility of the German delegates not signing the peace terms but that he personally does not think the terms will be so hard as to prevent German signature. Nevertheless, he said, if the peace is not signed by Germany, "it will lead to Bolshevism in Germany and to a movement among German intellectuals to join the Russian Bolshevists."

STORE ROBBED

Burglar Gets Away With Loot Valued at $100 From A. S. Doniphan's Store.

The news and tobacco store of A. S. Doniphan, 727 King street, was burglarized early yesterday morning and booty valued at $100 was taken by the burglar. The loot consisted of cigars, cigarettes, tobacco, candy, punch board, and a lot of miscellaneous articles.

Entrance was made through the cellar of the store after which the robber forced a trap door. A report of the robbey has been made to the police who are investigating the case.

THE HOSPITAL REPORT

Forty-Sixth Annual Just Issued by That Institution—During Past Year, 1,183 Patients Were Treated at That Institution.

The forty-sixth annual report of the Alexandria Hospital, with reports of managers, treasurer, superintendent and auxiliary societies, has just been compiled.

The report of the treasurer of the board of lady managers, Miss R. T. Klipstein, shows that sum of $4,407.19 was received for furnishing the hospital and miscellaneous money received was $994.45 making a total of $5,401.64 and the expenditure on the nurses home $5,359.10 leaving a balance on hand of $42.54.

According to the report of Julian T. Burke, treasurer, the receipts during the year were $26,114.69 and expenditures, $24,947.89 leaving a balance on hand of $1,166.80.

Miss Fanny Carter, superintendent of the hospital, reports that the total number of patients treated were 1,183 and number of days of gratuitous nursing 2,253. Other items in her report follow: Number of paients in the hospital January 31, 31; number of patients admitted during the year, 843; dispensary cases treated, 765; new cases, 340; cases redressed in dispensary, 424; number of free patients admitted, 179; number of births, 122; average number of patients per day, 39.5; number of deaths, 90; surgical operations, major, 77; surgical operations, minor, 197; total operations, 274.

Mrs. L. Wilbur Reid, president of the board of lady managers makes the following report.

Seventeen months have passed since the Alexandria Hospital opened to new life and hard work. Strenuous months they have been. Months freighted with sickness, death and sorrow for our dear people bereft of their loved ones, who have entered into "rest." The work of these months has been a severe strain both on our Hospital force of workers and our physicians. The sincerest thanks of our Board of Managers is due to our most efficient Superintendent and her faithful staff of helpers, and to our untiring staff of physicians, who amid all their mutiplicity of calls, never failed the Hospital in its need.

Great anxiety was felt owing to the unprecedented prices of food and wages, as to our ability to meet expenses, but we have very much for which to be thankful, for as our needs increased, so means was providentially provided. In the most strenuous hours of the hospital, sickness, from the scourage of influenza prostrated many of our nurses thus causing shortage of help. The prompt, efficient aid from outside friends was a great relief and was sincerely appreciated by all interested in the work of the Hospital.

Many necessary comforts have been added both to the Nurses' Home and the Hospital, made possible by the generous gifts of friends. The Hospital work is still suffering for an up-to-date laundry. The one installed in the Hospital when built was soon, by the hard usage necessary, put entirely out of commission, which entails our resorting to the public laundries for help, thereby incurring great additional expense.

Our high aspiration is to have an X-ray outfit, for which we have the room ready and waiting and which would greatly facilitate in many cases the work of the physicians.

Now that we are experiencing a more quiet though still a busy life, we wish to express our gratification that we have a most complete, efficient staff for the working of the Hospital. Miss Carter, Superintendent, with her assistant, Miss Giles; Miss Tinsley Dietician; Miss More and Miss Makeley in the office, with fifteen nurses, five of whom have been recently taken as probationers.

I most thankfully add that efficiency and faithfulness to duty with peace and harmony are the keynotes of all work done in the name of the Hospital. I cannot close without expressing regret in the resignation of Mr. Worth Hulfish as President of the Board of Trustees. His long, valuable service to the old Hospital and his generous help to the new Hospital has been most appreciated by our Board of Managers. We now congratulate ourselves in the acquisition of

THREAT OF BOLSHEVISM

Efforts of Erzberger to Bulldoze Allied Commander at Armistice Conference Brought Caustic Outline of Huns' Position.

Brussels, March 17.—The German delegates have accepted all of Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss' naval conditions.

Berlin, March 17.—Now that a final agreement has been reached by the German and allied commissions at Brussels and the blockade is partly lifted, it is interesting to persue detailed accounts of the various stormy armistice sessions at Spa and Treves, just released for publication in German newspapers.

An interesting feature of the negotiations is that the chairman of the German armistice commission insisted that Alsace-Lorraine must be absolutely regarded as German "until the decision of the treaty of peace."

The account also shows that the chief weapon Erzberger tried to employ in the proceedings was the threat of Bolshevism in Germany, against which, he told Foch, "even the entente countries are not invulnerable."

On various occasions Dr. Erzberger launched into lengthy lectures on "justice" and "humanity," to which Marshal Foch replied with heat that he refused to accept either instructions or criticism from the German commissioner. Repeatedly, too, Erzberger had to be reminded that the war is still on.

Battleship New Jersey Brings Home Men Who Saw Hard Service in France

Newport News, Va., March 17.—Veterans of the old Virginia infantry and other troops from the Old Dominion, who saw hard service over there, arrived here Saturday morning on the battleship New Jersey after eighten days on the water. Many of them had been wounded in action, and were invalided home as physically unfit for further duty, but they declared they never felt better in their lives, and swung their heavy packs up the street and out to the casual camp with the ease of the hardened war veteran.

They were in the St. Aignan embarkation camp for several weeks, and declared that was the worst experience of their lives.

IN MEMORIAM

In remembrance of My beloved son Albert R. Metzger, who passed to a higher life five years ago today, March 17, 1914.

Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears of sorrow silently flow;
Fond memory, keeps our dear one near us
Though heaven claimed him five years ago.

God calls our loved ones;
But we lose not wholly
What He hath given;
They live on earth in thoughts and deed
As truly as in His Heaven.

FIRE AT BRICK YARD

Engine Room and Most of the Sheds at Broomilaw Destroyed by Blaze This Morning—Origin of Conflagration Unknown.

An alarm of fire was sounded about ten o'clock this morning, and for a time the department supposed their services were needed at the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Company. It was subsequently learned that a fire was raging at the works of the Broomilaw Brick Company, on the north shore of Hunting Creek, a short distance southwest of St. Mary's Church Cemetery. The fire had gained considerable headway before the apparatus reached the scene, as the ground was soft from the rains of the past few days, which rendered locomotion difficult. The engines were soon at work, however, and the fire was kept from the office buildings, water was pumped from Hunting Creek. The engine house, however, was destroyed and much of the shedding consumed.

Fortunately but little wind was prevailing at the time which kept the flames from spreading.

The loss could not be ascertained, nor could the origin of the fire be learned.

ATHLETES ENTERTAINED

High School Boys and Girls Basket Ball Teams Given Delightful Supper by Public Business Men—Address by Superintendent.

It was with much surprise and appreciation that the boys and girls representing Alexandria High School basket ball; the boys and girls who have worked and trained after school hours for the betterment and development of athletics in Alexandria and for the privilege of wearing the "A," learned that their efforts had not gone entirely unnoticed by the citizens of their home town. This fact was revealed to them when a prominent merchant and business man announced that he wished to reward in some way the efforts and success of the A. H. S., boys and girls. It is a known fact that an athlete's most necessary asset is good food, so a supper was decided upon as the reward that would be most appreciated.

Thursday, March 13, at 6 o'clock p. m., was the time set and a few minutes past that hour there were present in the high school basket ball hall those same occupants that had been there so many times before, but this time the boys had changed their trunks and jerseys for most attractive social attire and the girls their middies and bloomers for dainty evening frocks.

The supper was the best ever and the appetites were just in time for such a feed. The good things disappeared as rapidly as they were brought to the table and the only reason there was any left when the supper was over was on account of the plentiful supply of the generous host. At intervals during the supper the following toasts were responded to.

"Our Host," Miss Margaret Abramson, Class 19; "Alexandria High School," Alvin Friedlander, Class '19; "Girls' Basket Ball," Elmer Davis, Class 19; "Boys Basket Ball," Miss Lynda Carver, Class 20; Alecko, (The 1919 Annual, Frederick West, Class '19; The Wearers of the "A" Miss Dickert, girls' coach Superintendent of schools and school board, Miss Hilda Noonan, Class 20; R. C. Haydon, boy's coach, was toast master.

Other interesting features of the evening were addresses by Superintendent W. H. Sweeney and Principal Trussell, and vocal solos by Fred Petitt, Class '21, and violin solo by Alvin Friedlander, Class '19, accompanied by Miss Virginia Schwab, Class '20.

Those present were Misses Mildred Llyod, Lynda Carver, Hilda Noonan, Hilda Pullman, Willie Ross, Margaret Abramson, Virginia Steele, Katherine and Marion Adams, Eddie Dickert and Corinne Reardon, Mesdames Brandon Trussell and Richard C. Haydon, Messrs. Fred Petitt, Everett Pohl, Alvin Friedlander, Frederick West, Carl Dreifus, Elmer Davis, Davis Jackson, Hugh Marsh, William Dwall, Robert Midkiff, W. H. Sweeney, Brandon Trussell and R. C. Haydon.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Today is St. Patrick's Day, and as is their wont, the Irish colors are flying over Burke and Herbert's bank, Southeast corner of King and Fairfax streets.

The peculiarity of the observance is that March 17th is the date on which Patrick died, instead of bein as is usually the case with anniversaries, the day of birth.

There are many other strange features connected with the celebrated preacher of the fifth century, in that there is little certainty about the events of its life, except that he died on March 17th. There is less definitely known about him than any other historic character.

A British museum manuscript states that Patrick was born in 372 at Bonavens Tabernae, thought to be the modern Boulogne in France, but another manuscript gives the place as Banzevan Taberniae, a district in Scotland. The Scotch persist that he came into this world on Scotch heath er, but at their own Kilpatrick, in 373. Date and place are thus different, according to different authorities.

His birth surname was "Succath," and the Christian name "Patrick," while the name "Patricius" was given by Pope Celestine to replace "Succath." By some he is said to have visited Gaul (which includes present France, Belgium and Switzerland) and Italy, yet others declare that he, like Peter, never saw Italy, or even Gaul.

Patrick is said to have been episcopally ordained at Rome, and again that he was ordained at home, wherever that was. The date of his ordination is equally uncertain. Of the general course of his labors little is doubt.

Then, according to certain claimants, he went from Britain to Ireland in 430 and began preaching; others assert that he started from Scotland in 432 on his missionary work. Dates and places again are contradictory. Later he was consecrated Bishop, but whether it was when he was forty-five or earlier or later no one can assure us.

It is claimed by one class of historians that he wrote a "Confession" in his old age but others insist that this statement is untrue. He died in Down, Ulster, on March 17th, 493, though there are persons who claim that the year was 495.

Protestants and Catholics vie with each other in insisting that he belongs exclusively to them. And various nations say that he was born, or lived or labored in their country, Whether, therefore, we are descendants of Italians, Swiss, Belgians, French, Scotch or British, Catholics or Protestants, we all claim him, so we all can join in the celebration of the day.

THE LATE ROGER A. PRYOR

As was stated in the Gazette, Gen. Robert A. Pryor died in New York on Friday last. The announcement of the death of the distinguished Virginian was received, too late to print even a synopsis of his career. He spoke in old Liberty Hall, which then stood on Cameron street, shortly before the outbreak of the civil war.

General Pryor was a picturesque figure. As a young man he studied law and was admitted to the bar and then drifted into newspaper work. He was in Congress when his State seceded from the Union. He went South and made fiery speeches for secession. He entered the Confederate Army with a commission as colonel and was one of the party that began the war by firing on Fort Sumter. He was a dashing soldier and advanced to the rank of brigadier-general. Because of dissatisfaction with President Davis he resigned his commission and enlisted as a private in Fitzhugh Lee's command.

When the war ended General Pryor found himself with a large family, utterly penniless and without employment. Like many other Confederates, he made his way to New York, where, like many others, he received generous treatment. He first engaged in newspaper work and then practiced law, using his first fee, which was $1,000, to bring his family to New York. He soon became a leader of the New York bar, and in 1890 he was appointed to the bench and shortly afterward the Confederate veteran became a member of the Supreme Court of the State of New York. In 1889, having passed the age of threescore and ten, he retired, and now, after twenty years, he dies at the age of ninety-one.

As an exchange observes. "what a great span of life and what a period of our history that life covered. His memory went back to the exciting times of nullification in the reign of Andrew Jackson. He was a year old when the Spanish flag was hauled down in Florida and that land became a part of the United States When the Mexican War began he was old enough to become a soldier. He saw the beginning and the end of the great controversy between the States. He saw the acquisition of Texas and all the Pacific Coast by the United States and our territory vastly extended, and finally he lived to see the United States become a world power and a conqueror of Germany and Austria. What a wonderful and varied life! What an unusual career."

ANOTHER ROBBERY

The store of A. S. Doniphan, northeast corner of King and Columbus streets, was entered early yesterday morning and a number of articles valued at about one hundred dollars, carried off.

As was stated in the Gazette, Saturday, two youths are now being held for the action of the grand jury on the charge of robbing several stores on King street recently.

It has long been believed that the store robbers which are causing so much annoyance to merchants at present are in the juvenile age. Youngsters, it is believed, have been carrying on this species of crime during the past 5 or 6 years. In some cases the evidence has been positive, but the courts have considered the fact that the accused were young and losses having been made good, their victims have withdrawn the charges, and the young criminals have not ben prosecuted. According to the present juvenile laws, they have been given opportunities to "redeem themselves.' Probably some have, but it is feared the larger number have presumed on the leniency of the laws now upon the statute books.

A youngster was arrested this morning on suspicion of robbing Mr. Doniphan's store, but in the absence of evidence he was released upon his own recognizance. This youth has been in trouble on other occasions, and at present is under parole from the authorities of the reform school.

The probation officer reports a number of boys of more tender years who do not attend school, but past their time in the streets, sometimes committing misdemeanors and getting into the Police Court. The parents of such should remember they are liable to a fine of twenty dollars for failing to send their boys to school.

COMING WAR ON TOBACCO

The country is now indebted to the Board of Prohibition, Temperance and Public Morals, a body of campaigners in Washington, for our answer to the question Has the limit in Social reform been reached? That board has announced a new program Having achieved an amendment to the Constitution barring the manufacture or sale of transportation of liquor, it boldly declares that it will go into politics to the hilt, demanding the election of public officials from the presidency down to the sheriffs of counties in a determination to enforce the law against liquor. There is nothing surprising in that declaration perhaps, but this board's program does not end there.

It is the fixed purpose, now openly avowed, to open a bitter and unrelenting fight against the tobacco evil. The user of this product must be prepared to defend his appetite for it and to go to the rescue of the growers and manufacturers, if he would save the sources of supply.

This sort of thing may not be taken seriously by the general public at first. The campaign against liquor was not taken seriously until it had assumed threatening proportions. But the time may not be far distant when the same forces which challenged and defeated the liquor industry and the liquor drinker may put tobacco out of business.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Bronchial Coughs—

For quick relief from wearing bronchial coughs that "hang on" and weaken, for thick wheezy breathing, irritated throat and air passages, for sleep-disturbing night coughs, take Foley's Honey and Tar.

In it, you quickly get the curative influence of the pine tar and other healing ingredients, together with the mollifying and laxative effect of honey.

Foley's Honey and Tar is also good for croup, whooping cough, tickling throat and hoarseness. It does not contain morphine, chloroform or any other injurious drug. Do not accept a substitute.

"My wife contracted a severe cold which finally developed into bronchial trouble. She coughed almost continually. The remedies we tried gave only temporary relief. I happened to pick up one of Foley's Family Almanacs and as a result, purchased a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. She had not used half the bottle when her cough began to slack up, and she could rest so much better at night. She continued using it until she used 7 bottles, which effected a permanent cure." Yours respectfully, W. S. Bailey, Lancaster, Ky.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Seven hundred and twenty-nine persons were killed and 1,754 were injured in aerial attacks by allied forces on German territory up to November 6, 1918, according to official figures made public in Berlin.

Another attempt has been made against the life of Nikolai Lenine, the Russian Bolshevik premier at Moscow. Shots were fired at Lenine, but he was not injured. His chauffeur was wounded.

Army aviators returning to Bolling field, D. C., from the aeronautical exposition in New York report that plans are rapidly being perfected for aerial passenger service between New York and Washington and Los Angeles. The service from coast to coast will be started in August, acording to Wesley A. Hill, of Phoenix, Ariz.

Eitel Friedrich, second son of the former German emperor, has commenced divorce proceedings against his wife, charging infidelity before the war, says the Kleine Journal of Berlin. When the former prince attempted to begin proceedings before the war his father vetoed the plan, the newspaper adds. Eitel Friedrich was married in 1906 to Grand Duchess Sophie Charlotte of Oldenburg.

Unless the producers and fish merchants grant the demands of the fishermen's union of the Atlantic, it was indicated yesterday in Boston a strike may be called in the New England fisheries industry within a week. The employers refused to grant the wage increase demanded by the fishermen and it is alleged that they also refuse to arbitrate the question involved. The fishermen are willing to have their demands submitted to arbitration.

Four men were arrested yesterday in New York and charged with burglary in connection with the robbery of $26 432 last Thursday from a safe in the vault of the Cosmopolitan Bank. The men arrested include Samuel Smith, the $287.50 a week paying teller of the bank; Samuel Levitt, saloon keeper; Abraham Leavitt, shipping clerk, and Frank Reynolds, former employe of the bank. More than $23,000 of the stolen money has been recovered, it is stated.

Should the proposed league of nations fail, the United States is prepared straightway to commission fleets of lighter-than-air machines that will dominate the air. The new types of dirigibles will be able to attack any ship approaching America's coast lines and will constitute the most powerful naval auxiliary man ever has devised. The magnitude of strength of the new weapon of warfare was revealed yesterday by the Navy Department .

Union printers will be found backing the American flag when any "no beer, no work," and Mooney strikes are undertaken, according to F. C. Roberts, formerly president of Columbia Typographical Union, a special agent of the Department of Labor, who spoke before a meeting yesterday. Roberts declared that from what he could learn the number of men who will participate in such strikes is being magnified, and that it is evidently being fostered by the brewery interests. No influential labor organizations are taking any special interest in the matter, from what he understood, said Roberts.

Attacks from three different angles on the constitutionality of the prohibition amendment and other anti-liquor legislation, including the emergency "dry" clause of the agricultural bill adopted last November, are being planned, with Washington as the base of operations. Announcement was made yesterday that headquarters are to be established in the Capital, and the biggest legal battle in American court history will be waged from here to prevent the nation-wide abolition of alcoholic beverages. The league intends to seek a special election in Virginia to give the people a chance to say whether they favor the action taken by the legislature in ratifying the "dry" amendment.

Damage estimated by railroad officials at approximately $1,000,000, resulted from the complete destruction by fire early last night in Atlanta, Ga., of the Southern Railway freight transfer at Inman yards. About eighty carloads of foodstuffs and other goods of various descriptions weer destroyed by the fire. The Inman yards transfer was one of the places affected by the strike of railway clerks, several hundred of them being out there, it was stated. It was said to be the largest freight transfer in the South. Quick action by the railroad officials, who ordered thirty-six switch engines, from various points around Atlanta, saved approximately 100 cars loaded with freight.

TO INVESTIGATE PRISON

Governor Davis Orders Probe of Flogging and Alleged Cruel Treatment.

Charges made against the State prison management in connection with alleged cruel treatment of Dr. Asa W. Chamberlain, serving a life sentence for the murder of his brother, Judge Albert P. Chamberlain, have been referred by Governor Davis to the State Board of Charities and Corrections. Dr. Joseph T. Mastin, secretary of the board, will head a committee to begin at once an investigation of treatment accorded prisoners generally, it is announced.

The charges grew out of the flogging of Dr. Chamberlain following his attempt to escape from the central prison here. This was several months ago, when the doctor, now nearly sixty-four years old, stole civilian clothes which were manufactured in the building and made a rope from bed clothing to aid in his escape. He was detected and was flogged for the theft of the clothing.

This was brought to the attention of E. E. Dudding, secretary of the Prisoners' Relief Society, of Washington. Mr. Dudding brought the case to the attention of Governor Davis in a letter characterizing the treatment as atrocious, inhuman and brutal. The letter also said that Dr. Chamberlain had been lashed to a cross and left suspended in agony for several hours.

Major J. B. Wood, superintendent of the prison, made no denial of the charge that the doctor had been flogged. He said he had not been given as much punishment as he deserved. Concerning the "cross," however Major Wood laughed. It developed that the "cross" was a mattress to which intractable prisoners were some times lashed as punishment for minor offenses. There was no suffering attached to such punishment at all, the superintendent said.

Governor Davis has also determined to visit the institution soon for the purpose of investigating general conditions.

Dr. Chamberlain is the man who was convicted of murder following the finding of his brother's dismembered body buried under fence posts in his yard in Goochland County. He was convicted in Goochland Court in January of last year and sentenced by Judge John B. Rutherford to serve a life sentence in the penitentiary.

HUNS SINK SUBMARINE

Crew of U-Boat Perish When Escape From Surrender is Foiled

London, March, 17.—The crew of the German submarine, U-48, sank their undersea vessel just as a Spanish destroyer was about to recapture it after an attempt to escape from the Bay of Betanzos, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch today.

The submarine was interned in the bay and was to be handed over to the allies under terms of the armistice. Spanish authorities at Ferrol had ordered the submarine crew to prepare their vessel to be turned over, but rather than do this the Germans decided to make an attempt to escape.

A spanish destroyer sighted the periscope leaving the bay and gave chase. The Germans made a running fight but as the destroyer gained on them an explosion occurred and the submersible was seen to go down, end up.

All members of the crew are believed to have perished.

HALTS AUTO THIEVES

Farmer Recognizes Trio, Has Fight For Possession of Gun, and Causes Culprits Arrest.

Salem, N. J., March 17.—Scantily clad and with shotgun in hand, Leander S. Loder, a farmer of Oldmans township, crept in his bare feet upon a gang of men who were attempting to remove his automobile from the garage and was able to get such an excellent description of the thieves that they were easily apprehended Saturday. The persons arrested were Alex Steward and Austin Curriden, who are each held in $1,000 bail for Court, and Charles Hall, colored, who is held in $500 bail as a witness.

Loder is employed by the construction quartermaster at the Delaware General Ordnance Depot, Perkintown, and returning from work at 1.30 a. m. placed his car in the garage. While smoking his pipe beside the kitchen fire he heard strange voices in the yard. Although having removed his shoes and most of his clothes he ventured out and found an effort being made to start the machine. Hurrying back to the house he got his gun, crept quietly to the garage and watched the men at work. They were unable to start the motor, so they decided to let out the air and take the tires. This was too much for Loder, for he knew he would have the task of pumping them up again, so he jumped out on the thieves and commanded them to throw up their hands.

Steward made a lunge to grab the weapon, but the farmer was too quick for him and pointing the gun at his head ordered him to leave the premises at once. Loder allowed all to go, for he recognized them and at once communicated the facts to the authorities and the arrests followed.

KOREA ASKS FREEDOM

Appeals to President to Put Asperations Before Conference

Washington, March 17.—President Wilson has been asked by the Korean National Association to initiate action at the Peace Conference looking to independence for Korea with the country to be guided by a mandatory until such time as the proposed league of nations shall decide that it is fit for self-government.

The copy of the letter to the President was made public here yesterday by Syngman Rhee, who, with Henry Chung, are the authorized delegates of the association in the United States. At the same time there also was given out a letter addressed to the Peace Conference asking that Korea be freed from the domination of Japan and given full freedom even tually. This letter was sent to the States Department for transmission to Paris.

Both letters assert that Japan established a protectorate over Korea in direct violation of her treaty obligation to Korea; that since that time the country has been misruled, its resources exploited for benefit only of the Japanese, its literature suppressed and its religious worship supervised.

TELLS STORY OF AFFLICTION

Centreville Woman, Deserted by Husband, Has Lost Four Sons.

Centreville, Md., March 17.—One son lying "in Flanders fields" and three others dead as a result of the recent influenza epidemic, not to mention the fact that her husband deserted her a couple of years ago, was the story of sorrow and affliction told by Mrs. Mary A. Robinson, of near Mallalieu's Mill, in the Seventh district, at the county meeting of War Mothers in Centerville this week.

After she was forsaken by her husband, her son, William Edgar Robinson, was drafted and sent to Camp Meade. This left her with two children, and last October Noble, Manning and Leland died. A few weeks later she received a communication from the War Department stating that William Edgar Robinson had been killed in France. This news was later corrected and she learned that her son had died in October from bronchial pneumonia.

She has two children left since the ravages of war and disease have practically wiped out her family. She does not know the whereabouts of her husband.

U. S. ACE KILLED IN FLORIDA

Loses Life When Plane Falls in Nose Drop at Dayton Beach.

Seabreeze, Fla., March 17.—Major McK. Peterson, one of America's officially recognized "aces," was killed yesterday in the fall of his airplane at Daytona Beach. Major Peterson's home address is Honedale, Pa.

The airplane, piloted by Major Peterson and in which Lieut. F. X. Paversick was a passenger, dropped nose forward after reaching a height of about 75 feet while ascending from the beach. Major Peterson was killed instantly and Lieutenant Paversick was injured seriously.

Previous to his enlistment with the American air forces, Major Peterson was a member of the Lafayette Escadrille. While connected with the French aerial service he was unofficially credited with bringing down 18 German machines.

The official report of the War Department giving the names of 62 recognized American "aces" showed that Peterson brought down five German machines while serving in the American air service.

PEACE

Now let thy conquering flags be furled,
Thy calls to battle cease.
Teach thou the people of the world
The pleasantness of peace.
No nation now but knows thy might,
Thy strength on land and sea;
The world in wonder watched the fight,
And cheered thy chivalry.
The God who said, "Thou shalt not kill"
Has not revoked His word,
But emphasizing still His will,
Commands, "Put up they sword,"
Then learn Christ's lesson to forgive,
From wars forever cease.
Teach thou the nations how to live
In universal peace.

TWO-CENT LETERS AGAIN

First Assistant Postmaster General Koons Makes Announcement.

Washington, March 17.—First Assitant Postmaster General J. C. Koons announced that under legislation obtained after July 1 a letter mailed to any out of town point will require only 2 cents postage. Mr. Koons also said that instructions have been issued to postal employes to make sure that all parcel post packages are securely tied before acceptance and that after receipt are handled as carefully as possible. He said that the public will mark a great change in postal service for the better, now that the war time rush is over. Postmaster M. O. Chance probably will open three more classified postal stations in the near future to meet crowded conditions. The locations said to be under consideration are in the vicinities of Seventh street and Maryland avenue northeast. Fourteenth street and Rhode Island avenue northwest and in the southwest section. These branches will bring the number to 24, against 13 in January, 1918.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

BURDEN OF PROOF

Court of Appeals Decides State Must Show Guilt of Dry-Law Defendants.

The burden of proving guilt under the prohibition act, even though there is unmistakable prima facie evidence of violation of the law, rests with the Commonwealth according to the decision Thursday of the Supreme Court of Appeals in the case of Charlie Neal who was fined $50 and given thirty days in jail for having in his possession more than one gallon of alcoholic liquids.

The case came up on a writ of error from the Circuit Court of Lunenburg County, in which it was shown that Neal had in his home two gallons of wine, made by his wife for her sick mother, and several gallons of alcoholic slop water left over from rinsing out a molasses barrel. Besides this, there was located in the corn crib a barrel of vinegar which tested more than 2 per cent of alcohol.

Among the instructions given by the trial judge to the jury was this one:

"The court further instructs the jury that, if they shall believe from the evidence that Charlie Neal had in his possession more than one gallon of the beverages which he had made or manufactured which contained more than 1-2 of 1 per cent of alcohol, he is presumed guilty under this indictment."

Judge Stafford G. Whittle, president of the court, says, in reversing the lower court, that the law shall be construed this way.

"In the present case, the evidence on behalf of the accused tends to show the lawful acquisition and possession of the beverages in question, and the jury was confronted by a prima facie presumption that the decoction was in the possession of the accused for the purpose of sale, on the one hand, and by the presumption of innocence, fortified by rebuttal evidence, on the other. In such case, the burden of proof to establish the guilt of the accused beyond a reasonable doubt rested on the Commonwealth and constituted a continuing burden which inheres in every stage of the prosecution."
